Tacktick supported Sibello brothers win second ISAF world sailing cup of the year

The Italian 49er Sibello brothers were the first to confirm their victory in the ISAF World Sailing Club held in Hyeres at the weekend.

This is the second ISAF Sailing World Cup event won by the Italians who are supported this year by Tacktick.

Tacktick's solar powered Micro Compass, is the world's leading digital dinghy compass. Incorporating a compass, tactical scale and race timer in a robust, fully waterproof, solar powered digital instrument, the twin screens ensure clear, readable digits in line of sight.

Ideal for 49ers wanting to improve their performance, the Tacktick Micro Compass gives competitors all the data needed to react to the smallest wind shifts. The Micro Compass, is light weight and easy to read and is available with a range of brackets to fit most boats.

Conditions in Hyeres were very windy and gusty; ideal for getting the most out of the Race Master's tactical compass.

Notes for editors:

April 2009

Tactick are world leaders in wireless, solar powered electronics for the marine industry. Formed in 1996 by brothers Clive and Mark Johnson, years of extensive research and development, together with customer feedback led to the development of the world's first wireless networking electronics system, Micronet, in 2003. Tactick offer a range of wireless electronic instruments for dinghies through to race boats, cruisers and power boats too. Top sailors around the world have been sailing with Tactick's instruments since 1997. In April 2007 Tactick won the prestigious Queens Award for Innovation for their Micronet technology.
